

The CSRA Air Quality Alliance Stakeholders held a meeting on March 18th at the SCE&G Misty Lake Recreation Area to provide attendees updates on air quality initiatives within the region, and to update the audience with the most recent air quality monitor data. Speakers included representatives from federal, state and local agencies from Georgia and South Carolina, and also included presentations on special air quality programs and van pool alternatives. The individual presentations are available below.